

The Bonnie Cashin Lecture Series

The UCLA Library invites you to the inaugural Bonnie Cashin Lecture featuring

Judith Freeman

speaking on

The Real Long Goodbye:
The Unconventional Marriage of Raymond and Cissy Chandler

Raymond Chandler's wife, Cissy, was eighteen years older than he. Reclusive and private, the Chandlers lived in more than thirty different places in and around Los Angeles. Judith Freeman will discuss the effect of this marriage on Raymond Chandler's work and life.

Thursday, April 22, 2004 4-6 p.m.
Champagne reception

Department of Special Collections
A1713 Young Research Library

RSVP by April 15th to 310.794.4408 or by email

Parking available in Lots 3 and 5 for $7
Enter off Hilgard Avenue at Wyton Drive