Thornton Wilder's HEAVEN'S MY DESTINATION

Adapted by Lee Blessing

Directed by Michael Bloom

Drury Theatre, April 24 - May 17, 2009

The world premier adaptation of a brilliant comic novel from the author of Our Town. George Marvin Brush, one of Thornton Wilder's most memorable characters, is a traveling textbook salesman and also a fervent religious convert determined to lead "a good life". A startlingly relevant tale of religion and tolerance with poignant and sometimes hilarious consequences, George's travels take him through smoking cars, bawdy houses, banks and campgrounds from Texas to Illinois - and into the soul of America.

Cirque Dreams

Direct from Broadway, Cirque Dreams Jungle Fantasy is an exotic encounter inspired by nature's unpredictable creations that are brought to life by an international cast of 25 soaring aerialists, spine-bending contortionists, acrobats, jugglers and musicians. The astounding feats performed in this action packed Cirque Dream are enhanced with over 150 spectacular costumes and set in a fantastical jungle ignited by striking visual effects. From the breathtaking aerial ballet of butterflies to the balancing giraffes, gigantic flowers and trees, this world-class explosion of athleticism, theatre and imagination will exhilarate the entire family. In the ongoing tradition of extravagant touring shows, Neil Goldberg and Cirque Productions continue to blend European artistry with circus and Broadway theatrics in a dramatic fashion that transcends imagination and leaves its' narration to the eyes of the beholder making Cirque Dreams Jungle Fantasy a Broadway first.

Opens April 4th:

From Asbury Park to the Promised Land: The Life and Music of Bruce Springsteen.

This will be the first major artifact-driven exhibit about Springsteen's legendary career. It will be a comprehensive look at his music, from such early bands as Child, the Castiles and Steel Mill through his work with the E Street Band and as a solo artist. The exhibit will include several of Springsteen's guitars, including the Fender Telecaster that is on the cover of Born to Run. It will also include the outfit he wore on the cover of Born in the U.S.A., as well as numerous handwritten lyric manuscripts, posters and handbills from all phases of his career, and various awards and honors. In addition, the exhibit will include Springsteen's 1960 Chevrolet Corvette, which he purchased after the success of Born to Run.
