

The Department of Special Collections
in the Charles E. Young Research Library
UCLA

Invites you to the inaugural Bonnie Cashin Lecture featuring

Judith Freeman

Speaking on

THE REAL LONG GOODBYE:
The Unconventional Marriage of Raymond and Cissy Chandler

Raymond Chandler's wife, Cissy, was 18 years older than he.
Reclusive and private, the Chandlers lived in more than 30 different places in and around Los Angeles.
Judith Freeman will discuss the effect of this marriage on Raymond Chandler's work and life.

Thursday, April 22, 2004

4-6 p.m.

Department of Special Collections
A1713 Young Research Library

RSVP by April 15th to 310.794.4408
Parking available in Lots 3 or 5 for $7
Enter off Hilgard Avenue at Wyton Avenue

Judith Freeman is a novelist, essayist, and critic, author of a collection of short stories and four novels, including The Chinchilla Farm, and most recently, Red Water, which was named one of the 100 Best Books of 2002 by the Los Angeles Times. She is the recipient of a Guggenheim Fellowship in Fiction, the Western Heritage Award, and the Utah Book Award. Her stories and essays have appeared a number of anthologies, and her work has been adapted to film. She lives in Los Angeles with her husband, artist-photographer Anthony Hernandez.

UCLA LIBRARY Department of Special Collections